

Gulliver's Travels

My father had a small house in Nottinghamshire. I was the third of five sons. When I was seventeen years old, I was sent to Mr. James Bates, a well-known doctor in London, with whom I worked and studied for four years. When I left Mr. Bates, I began to work as a ship doctor on the Swallow. (11) B After that I decided to stay in London. I bought a part of a small house and married Miss Mary Burton. But life in London was not easy. (12) A I spoke to my wife and some of my friends, and decided to become a ship doctor again. I agreed to go with Captain William Prichard, who was making a voyage to the South Seas on board the Antelope. We started from Bristol on the 4th of May, 1699. (13) A But when we were sailing across the Indian Ocean, a terrible storm began which carried our ship to the east for many days. Twelve of our sailors died of hard work and bad food, the others were ill. On the 5th of November which was the beginning of summer in those parts, our ship struck a rock. (14) BE I cannot tell what became of my companions, and of those sailors who remained on the ship and on the rock, but I think that they were all drowned. I swam where the wind and the waves carried me. I was very tired, but just when I could swim no more, I felt the bottom with my feet. (15) C I walked a little inland, but didn't see any houses or people. I lay on the grass, which was very short and soft, and slept more than nine hours.

Task 2. Read the article about a film called Dinosaur Island and then answer the questions. For questions 16 – 20, mark A, B, or C.

Film review : Dinosaur Island

George

I went with my younger brother to see this film. I had a great time, but he didn't. He had to close his eyes in some parts because the dinosaurs looked so real and he didn't laugh once. I thought the story was really exciting and the clothes were amazing. I'd like to buy the DVD and watch it at home too. The beginning and the ending were excellent!

Cathy

I saw the advertisement for the film on TV and it looked great but it wasn't as good as I hoped. I loved the beginning but the second half was boring. I think, I wouldn't go and see it again. I like films about teenagers and their lives much more. I think those are funnier. I've bought a brilliant book about film-making. I'd love to be a famous actress one day and wear lots of wonderful clothes.

Andrew

I didn't want this film to end because I liked it so much! I read this story before I saw the film. I usually enjoy the books more, but this time it was the opposite! I enjoyed feeling afraid but I laughed a lot in parts of the film too. I read all about how they made the dinosaurs on the internet after I went to see it. I think most young people will love seeing this film!
